Booted Harleydude's Work Boots. I do not have as many work boots in my collection as I have motorcycle boots or cowboy boots, but over the years, I have acquired some boots that I wear when I do physical labor, yard work, home remodeling jobs, or other outdoor activities. I may wear some pairs of these boots when I ride my Harley, such as the station boots, engineer boots, or western work boots.

The classic XR style is de rigueur for Harley flat trackers, but it's a tall order for the Street Bob's proportions, and building a new subframe would have been a push on our timeline. After healthy debate, we reached into Harley's history for inspiration—all the way back to the 1946 Harley-Davidson WR racer.. Those racers were stripped down for going fast on sketchy dirt tracks.
